The Editors

Philip L. Cottrell was born in Buckinghamshire in 1944. He is Professor Emeritus of Financial History as well as honorary visiting fellow at the University of Leicester. Throughout his career he has employed the particular viewpoint of history and economic and social history offered by finance with a focus on money, credit, and capital. This has led to a close cooperation with the European Association for Banking and Financial History (EABH) e.V., where he served as chairman of the Academic Council from 2002 to 2004. Among various articles Cottrell most recently published The Ionian Bank; an imperial institution, 1839-1864 in 2007, but he has also co-edited well-assorted editions of the EABH studies in banking and financial history. Furthermore, he edited and established the Financial History Review, together with his colleague Youssef Cassis, until 2004.

Gérassimos Notaras, born in 1936, is Professor and works for the Historical Archives of the National Bank of Greece. Notaras accomplished his first degree and his post-graduate studies at the University of Lausanne. Here he also worked as a teaching assistant from 1962 to 1965. Afterwards he worked as a research scholar at the Centre for Social Science in Athens until 1967. From 1995 to 2000 he was associate professor at the Ecole des hautes études en science sociales. Since 1978 he has worked as supervisor of the Bank's Historical Archive and alternate chairman of the History Committee at the National Bank of Greece. He is author of a large number of studies, such as A chronicle of National Bank of Greece: 1841 -2006, published in 2008, and has served on the committee of many academic foundations and associations. He was awarded with the French title of chevalier de la Legion d' Honneur. Currently, he is a well-respected member of the Academic Advisory Council of the EABH.

Gabriel Tortella is Professor Emeritus of Economic History at the University of Alcalá, a former member of the Academic Advisory Council of the EABH and former President of the Spanish Economic History Association. In 1994 he received the King Juan Carlos Prize in Economics. He has written numerous books and articles on banking history and general economic history. His publications include Para comprender la crisis in 2009, Del Monopolio al libre mercado. La historia de la industria petrolera española in 2003, in 2000 La revolución del siglo XX and in 1999 with R. Sylla and R. Tilly The State, the Financial System and Economic Modernization. He has chaired the Academic Advisory Council of EABH, received the AEHE Award for Outstanding Academic Achievement in 2009 and furthermore was honoured in 2010 with the tribute Homenaje a Gabriel Tortella.
