

Rebuilding the Financial System in Central and Eastern Europe, 1918-1994

The Editor

Philip L. Cottrell was born in Buckinghamshire in 1944. He is Professor Emeritus of Financial History as well as honorary visiting fellow at the University of Leicester. Throughout his career he has employed the particular viewpoint of history and economic and social history offered by finance with a focus on money, credit, and capital. This has led to a close cooperation with the European Association for Banking and Financial History (EABH) e.V., where he served as chairman of the Academic Council from 2002 to 2004. Among various articles Cottrell most recently published The Ionian Bank; an imperial institution, 1839-1864 in 2007, but he has also co-edited well-assorted editions of the EABH studies in banking and financial history. Furthermore, he edited and established the Financial History Review, together with his colleague Youssef Cassis, until 2004.
